Add role

A role defines a group of users that have certain names and the display sort order of the roles of user) to most permissive (for example, Administrator) to least permissive (for example, Anonymous user). Users who are logged in have the Authenticated user role, plus any other roles assigned to them. Roles are defined on the Permissions page. Here, you can define the roles and order roles from least permissive (for example, Anonymous user) to most permissive (for example, Administrator). Users who are not logged in have the Anonymous user role. Users who are logged in have the Authenticated user role, plus any other roles assigned to them.
